IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT JANUARY TERM 2023-"J-TERM"

January Term 2023 is a "stand-alone term" which means it is separate from and not associated or linked to spring semester 2023. Classes begin Wednesday, January 4, 2023 and end Tuesday, January 24, 2023.

Financial Aid Office, Moot Hall 230

- For Financial Aid processing only, the J-Term is considered part of the spring 2023 term. Visit the J-Term Aid website at <http://financialaid.buffalostate.edu/j-term-aid> for additional information.
- If you are attending J-Term and have NOT already used your full annual loan eligibility between the fall and spring terms, you may qualify for a loan. If you wish to borrow the loan, please submit the 2023 J-Term Aid Application. If you are eligible to borrow a loan for J-Term, the loan will be awarded. The application is available now and can be found at this location: <http://financialaid.buffalostate.edu/forms>.
- You must have the 2022-2023 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on file with our office before your January Term aid eligibility will be reviewed.
- You must be registered for all the courses for which you intend to enroll before submitting the J-Term Aid Application. The deadline to submit the J-Term Application is Friday, January 13, 2023.
- You will only be eligible to borrow a Federal Direct Stafford Loan if you have not used your full annual loan eligibility in 2022-2023 and are enrolled in at least six credits between J-Term and spring. We will award the loan based on the additional charges associated with January Term.
- Students who do not have 2022-2023 Federal Direct Stafford Loan eligibility remaining may ask their parent to consider applying for a Federal Direct PLUS loan (parents of dependent students only) or you may consider applying for a private alternative loan to help cover J-Term charges. For more information about parent and private loans, visit <http://financialaid.buffalostate.edu/>.
- You are reminded to always borrow conservatively.
- Textbook Deferments are not available during the J-Term.
- Federal Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) standards will not be updated after J-Term grades are posted. Consequently, taking a course during the J-Term will not change an "ineligible" federal SAP status. If you are unsure of your SAP status, please contact our office before registering for J-term courses to discuss your aid eligibility.
- Non-matriculated students are ineligible for federal financial aid.

Student Accounts Office, Moot Hall 260

- Tuition and fees for January Term will not be combined with tuition and fees for the Spring 2023 semester.
- Tuition and fee charges for J-Term 2023 will be viewable in Banner beginning December 7, 2022. If enrolled in both J-Term 2023 and spring semester 2023, you are responsible for remitting appropriate payment for each term by the due date.
- Electronic bills (eBills) are the exclusive billing method for student account balances. Paper bills are not available. Billing notifications are sent to your Buffalo State student email account.
- Log into Banner Student self-service (view/pay bill link) to access safe and convenient web payment, create authorized user accounts, and auto debit payment plan options.
- J-Term due date is January 5, 2023.
- Spring 2023 Semester due date is January 29, 2023.
- Failure to attend classes does not change the payment due or entitle you to a refund. To cancel the liability for registration, you must officially drop courses in Banner by the last day of the drop/add period.
- J-Term tuition and fees are assessed per credit hour enrolled.
- Spring 2023 Semester tuition and fees are assessed per credit hour for 1-11 enrolled hours and full-time flat rate for 12 or more credit hours.
